Expectations

Commitment – I understand the importance of honoring this commitment through to the end. Battle of the Books is a team activity, so it is important that I stick with it once I commit to a team.

Time - I understand that practices take place before school. I have the schedule and am committed to attending the practices.

Reading - I understand that I am responsible for reading a minimum of 4 of the 12 books and may be asked to read others so that my team has read all the books by March. I understand that I will need to read the books carefully and pay attention to detail.

Sportsmanship - I understand that this competitive event is for FUN, and good sportsmanship is EXPECTED during all activities that relate to the Battle.

Teams - I understand that teams may have mixed grades and will be decided randomly.

Competition Date- I understand that the Battle competition will tentatively take place on March 9th. 2027
